

Participants' Document – CodeFest 2025 Judging Criteria (Provincial Phase)

Title: CodeFest 2025 – Provincial Phase (Kathmandu)

Document Type: Judging Criteria Summary for Participants

Event Overview:

Dates: 5, 6, 7 Mangsir 2025

Venue: Texas International College, Mitrapark, Kathmandu

Theme: “Tech for Transparent Nepal – GenZ in Action from Protest to Prototype”

Purpose: Preselection for the National Grand Finale in December 2025

Theme Context for Participants

- Projects should focus on using technology to enhance transparency, accountability, and efficiency in Nepal’s public systems.
- Solutions should address real challenges, including governance gaps, service inefficiencies, or citizen engagement.
- Alignment with the theme is a key factor in scoring.

Judging Criteria (Total: 100 Marks)

S.N	Criteria	Description	Weight	What Judges Will Look For
1	Problem Understanding & Relevance	Understanding of the selected issue	15%	Clear problem definition, relevance to “Tech for Transparent Nepal”, addresses real public system issues
2	Innovation & Creativity	Originality and novelty of the idea	15%	New perspective, creative approach, improvement over existing systems
3	Feasibility, Impact & Business Perspective	Practicality, benefits, sustainability	20%	Realistic implementation, positive impact on citizens/government, basic business model, ethical tech use
4	System Design, Architecture & Compliance	Logical structure and workflow	15%	Clear workflow, roles, inputs/outputs, awareness of security/legal compliance, technical clarity
5	UI/UX Prototype &	Usability and	20%	Intuitive, user-friendly,

	Design Quality	completeness of the prototype		functional, complete UI mockups (mandatory)
6	Presentation & Communication	Pitch, confidence, and teamwork	15%	Clear and engaging presentation, contribution from all team members

Event Guidelines for Participants:

- Presentation & Demo: 15 minutes per team.
- Q&A: 5 minutes with judges.
- UI Mockups: Mandatory for preselection phase; ensure clarity, completeness, and alignment with intended functionality.
- Consider ethical, secure, and legally aware solutions in your project design.
- Judges will evaluate projects based on creativity, practicality, impact, technical design, and presentation.